

I strongly oppose the weakening of Indiana's TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW. I have two babies at home and getting interrupted by unnecessary phone calls cuts into my time that I have at home with them and distrubs them when they are napping and trying to sleep. Please consider how important my privacy is to me and my children.